By default, Streamline always re-forecasts the project as you:

- update your data;
- change the data source and fully reimport your project;
- change forecasting setting;
- unapprove forecasts;
- change project settings regarding forecasting;
- make product substitutions;
- override actual sales or stockout days;
- change order availability constraints.
- change the on hand history;
- change the amount of stock out days.

From:
https://gmdhsoftware.com/documentation-sl/ - GMDH Streamline Docs

Permanent link:
https://gmdhsoftware.com/documentation-sl/reforecast-triggers

Last update: 2022/07/25 07:32